

Grade 10 Social and Emotional Thinking

UNIT GOALS

The specific goals of this unit are for students to:

- demonstrate an understanding of leadership
- identify skills, qualities and values associated with successful leadership
- identify personal values within leadership skills and qualities
- show developing leadership skills in areas of; inclusion, motivation and team work
- demonstrate effective listening skills when a member of a team
- show understanding of the reflection cycle and how this affects leadership

UNIT OVERVIEW

- Leadership

ASSESSMENT DETAILS

Students are not required to complete a formal assessment but they are required to demonstrate attainment of Unit Goals within the individual's fullest potential. This understanding will be evidenced through contribution to group work activities, individual participation and class projects.